

Immediate Theatre are seeking...

Freelance Facilitators

to lead creative workshops with older people!

Do you have experience in running creative activities? - this could be music, drama, poetry, arts and crafts, storying telling etc

Are you experienced in working with older adults?

Have you worked in community settings?

We are looking for people to facilitate one-off taster sessions and short courses (4-6 weeks) over the coming year. Working with groups of older people in Hackney, Newham and Enfield. Workshops will take place in community settings, lunch clubs etc and sheltered accommodation and will take place during the day.

Background

Immediate Theatre is an established Hackney-based organisation providing creative projects that inspire wellbeing, break down barriers and engage people in the process of personal and social change.

We have a track-record of creating excellent work with the over 50s, including productions toured to lunch/social clubs across Hackney, Newham and Enfield. We have also produced intergenerational participatory projects and several films.

Lead Worker: £110 per session

Support Worker: £75 per session

Deadline: we are looking for people to start as soon as possible but the offer is ongoing, we will respond to applications as they arrive

Please send the following to: Tiziana@immediate-theatre.com

- your CV or link to your website
- a cover letter outlining your interest in and availability for the role, your experience and chosen art form.

- Please clarify if you have an up to date (within 2 years) DBS check for working with vulnerable adults – this is useful but not essential at application
- two references, we will only contact them once we have spoken to you.

We welcome and encourage applications from individuals from the global majority, who are under-represented in the creative industries.
